NQF8

Prescribed textbook: Robinson, K., Applied Governance (2023): CGISA

The aim of the module is to instil advanced knowledge and key skills necessary for the Chartered Secretary or Governance Professional to act as chief adviser to the board or governing body and other stakeholders on best practice in corporate governance, and as the facilitator for systematic application across a wide range of organisations.

Syllabus topics	Syllabus detailed content	Textbook
Learning Outcome 1: Research and critically evaluate the growing global, regional and local information sources on corporate governance.
Overview of the general principles of corporate governance	 Definitions of corporate governance – including well-known ones, such as from Cadbury report, OECD principles and King Report, as well as loca variations and according to organisation type The nature of corporate governance and purpose of good corporate governance Separation of ownership and control Agency theory Stakeholder theory Principles of good corporate governance Conflicts of interest The board of directors The law and corporate governance Approaches to corporate governance Codes of corporate governance and their application Concepts of 'comply or else', 'comply or explain', 'apply or explain', apply and explain Ethics and corporate governance
Learning Outcome 2: Justify and pathemes.	promote awareness of, and be responsible for continuing self and personnel developr	ment on corporate governance
The board of directors and leadership	 Statutory duties of directors The roles of chair and CEO Separating the roles of chair and CEO Independence and non-executive directors Liability of directors: directors' and officers' liability insurance Conflict of interest Concept of materiality Concept of related person or related parties The business judgement rule The solvency and liquidity test Loans to directors and prescribed officers The role of the company secretary in governance Role of the board Corporate governance issues relating to the board 	Chapter 2 Chapter 3

Syllabus Outline Applied Governance Matters reserved for the board Constituting committees of the board Size and balance of the board Board appointments and the nomination committee Succession planning Induction and training of directors Performance evaluation Structure of boards Learning Outcome 3: Apply the concepts of corporate social responsibility and ethical standards in governance. Financial reporting and corporate governance Governance and accountability Chapter 4 Financial reporting and investor confidence Financial reporting: directors' duties and responsibilities Misleading financial statements Role of the external auditors: the audit report Auditor independence Controls over the accounting profession The audit committee Learning Outcome 4: Critically appraise and apply corporate governance principles and best practice in the employing or client organisation. Role of the board in risk Risk governance as a primary responsibility of the board Chapter 5 The difference between 'business risk' and 'governance risk' (internal control Chapter 6 management and internal control risk) Internal control risks: financial, operational and compliance risks Elements of an internal control system Opportunity risk governance Risk appetite and risk tolerance Risk and return: identifying, evaluation, monitoring and reporting on key risk areas Responsibilities for risk management and internal control Reviewing and reporting on the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems Whistleblowing Reputation risk management Conflict prevention and resolution Role of the company secretary as a risk adviser Information technology governance Legislative background Sources of information International IT governance The Fourth Industrial Revolution Learning Outcome 5: Exercise appropriate judgement in the use of professional knowledge and skills to the resolution of practical issues and problems in the proper governance of the employing or client organisation. Relations with shareholders Identifying shareholders Chapter 7

Syllabus Outline Applied Governance

	Syliabus Outline Applied Governance
	Types of shareholders
	The equitable treatment of shareholders
	 Rights and powers of shareholders and protection for minority shareholders
	 Dialogue and communications with institutional shareholders (companies) and major stakeholders
	Non-financial reporting and voluntary disclosure
	 Integrated reporting
	 Role and relevance of institutional investor organisations (or major 	1
	stakeholders) and stakeholder guidelines; UK Stewardship Code and other	1 investment codes
	 Constructive use of the annual general meeting and responsible voting
	• Shareholder activism
	Electronic communications in shareholder relations
Corporate social responsibility and	The nature of sustainability	Chapter 8
sustainability	The nature of corporate responsibility and corporate citizenship
-	Internal and external stakeholders: integration of social, environmental and economic issues
	 Formulating and implementing a policy for corporate social responsibility
	Reporting to stakeholders on sustainability
Remuneration of directors and	Directors' remuneration as a corporate governance issue	Chapter 9
senior executives	Basis for determining remuneration	Readings
	The remuneration of non-executive directors
	Elements of remuneration for executive directors
	• Share awards
	The remuneration committee
	The remuneration policy
	The remuneration report
	Compensation for loss of office
	• Approval of remuneration
	Institutional shareholder views on directors' remuneration
	Continuing influences on executive remuneration
Other	Governance in the public sector	Chapters 10-12 King IV
governance issues	Governance of global companies Governance of unlisted companies
	Governance of small companies
	Governance in family-owned companies
	Governance in the not-for-profit sector Comparison between King I, II, III and IV codes International aspects of corporate governance:
	 Other models including US, Germany, Japan, Nepad, China
	 Other models including US, Germany, Japan, Nepad, China Effect of the global financial crisis on corporate governance

Syllabus Outline Applied Governance

Practical and work competence

- Provide stakeholders with an analysis of a corporate governance problems and solutions and advise as to how the problem might be resolved according to best practice
- Ensure compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act and Companies Regulations, other statutes and the King Report on Corporate Governance
- Ensure good information flows within the board or governing body and its committees and between senior management and non-executive directors
- Communicate using appropriate methods with institutional shareholders (companies) or major stakeholders
- Ensure that business of the company is conducted in accordance with its objectives as contained in its MOI
- Formulate and implement a policy for corporate social responsibility
- Compile reports for stakeholders on sustainability and corporate social responsibility issues
- From the perspective of a company secretary or governance professional, provide authoritative and professional advice on matters of corporate governance within a specific corporate context

Prescribed readings:

- the Companies Act 71 of 2008, as amended
- the Companies Regulations, 2011
- King IV Report on Corporate Governance 2016

Additional readings and resources: for downloading or reading/viewing:

- Integrated reporting
 - o http://integratedreportingsa.org/ircsa/wp-content/uploads/2017/05/13-12-08-THE-INTERNATIONAL-IR-FRAMEWORK-2-1.pdf
 - o http://integratedreporting.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/12/Creating-Value-Integrated-Reporting-and-investor-benefits.pdf
 - o http://integratedreporting.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/11/1315 MaterialityinIR Doc 4a Interactive.pdf
 - http://integratedreportingsa.org/faq-using-the-six-capitals-in-the-integrated-report/
- Remuneration: https://www.pwc.co.za/en/assets/pdf/2018-executive-directors-report.pdf (updated annually)